

National Banking Association. I do not believe that the banking association and it's affiliates should be able to call me for up to 18 month's after terminating business with one of their members. I do not believe that wisconsin's law should be weakened, just so I can be harassed with phone calls.

Yours truly,
Kenneth Thompson